Rathbone Global Opportunities Fund (I-class)

Fund Manager: Rathbone Unit Trust Management Limited

Accumulation units ISIN: GB00B7FQLN12

Objectives and investment policy

We aim to deliver a greater total return than the Investment Association (IA) Global sector, after fees, over any five-year period. Total return means the return we receive from the value of our investments increasing (capital growth) plus the income we receive from our investments (dividend payments). We use the IA Global sector as a target for our fund's return because we aim to achieve a better return than the average of funds that are similar to ours.

We compare our asset allocation to the FTSE World Index to give you an indication of how our fund is positioned against the global stock market.

We will invest at least 80% of our fund in global shares, with the remainder in cash, short-term deposits and UK government debt.

We actively manage our fund, which means we can choose what we invest in as long as it's in line with the investment objective and policy. Because of this, our funds performance can diverge significantly from its benchmarks over shorter periods of time and therefore isn't appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within five years.

Our fund is designed for investors with a basic knowledge of shares who seek growth. You should intend to invest for longer than five years, understand the risks of our fund and have the ability to bear a capital loss.

You can buy and sell units on each business day of the fund between 9am and 5pm.

The fund offers accumulation units (units in which any dividends received are added to the unit price).

Risk and reward profile

This indicator is a measure of the fund's past volatility (the extent and rapidity of up-and-down movements of the value of an investment). It may not be a reliable indication of the fund's future risk. The risk category shown is not a target or a guarantee and may change over time.

The risk indicator for this fund reflects the following:

– As an asset class, shares have greater risk than either bonds or money market instruments.

The value of investments in the fund and the income from them may go down as well as up and you may not get back your original investment when you sell your units.

During unusual market conditions, the risks normally experienced by the fund may increase significantly, and in addition, the fund may be subject to the following risks:

Counterparty risk: A company that we deal with may renege on its obligations, costing you money.

Currency risk: We own assets valued in a currency other than sterling. Changes in the price of foreign currencies can result in gains or losses, even if underlying asset prices stay the same.

Liquidity risk: Some assets become hard to sell at their expected price. This could mean we have to sell assets below their expected price resulting in a loss. In extreme circumstances, we may suspend the fund to protect your investment, resulting in you being unable to access your money.

Management risk: People make the investment decisions for our fund. If they make unfavourable decisions, you could lose money.

Operational risk: We rely on complex systems to ensure that trades are completed, our fund's assets are accounted for and that you can buy or sell our fund. If our systems fail, you could be inconvenienced or lose money.

Concentration risk: The fund invests in a small number of investments. This means that the performance of a single stock within the portfolio has a greater effect on the value of the fund. This can result in large gains or losses based on the performance of a single stock.
