You are about to purchase a product that is not simple and may be difficult to understand.

1. What is this product?

Type English law governed equity-linked notes / Return depends on the performance of the underlyings / No capital protection against market risk

Objectives

(Terms that appear in bold in this section are described in more detail in the table(s) below.)

The product is designed to provide a return in the form of a cash payment on termination of the product. The timing and amount of this payment will depend on the change in value of the preference shares, which in turn will depend on the performance of the underlyings. The product has a fixed term and will terminate on the maturity date, unless terminated early. The payment at maturity will not exceed GBP 1.4005. If, at maturity, the final reference level of the worst performing underlying has fallen below 65.00% of its initial reference level, the product may return less than the product notional amount or even zero.

Early termination following an autocall: The product will terminate prior to the maturity date if, on any autocall observation date, the reference level of the worst performing underlying is at or above its autocall barrier level. On any such early termination, you will on the immediately following autocall payment date receive a cash payment equal to the applicable autocall payment. The relevant dates and autocall payments are shown in the table(s) below.

- if the final reference level of the worst performing underlying is at or above 85.00% of its initial reference level, a cash payment equal to GBP 1.4005;
- if the final reference level of the worst performing underlying is at or above 65.00% of its initial reference level and below 85.00% of its initial reference level, a cash payment equal to GBP 1.00; or

3. if the final reference level of the worst performing underlying is below 65.00% of its initial reference level, a cash payment directly linked to the performance of the worst performing underlying. The cash payment will equal (i) the product notional amount multiplied by (ii) (A) the final reference level of the worst performing underlying divided by (B) its initial reference level.

Investors should note that the payments described above are based on the expected value of the preference shares. Therefore any return you may receive on the product depends directly on the value of the preference shares. As such, your return is only indirectly dependent on the underlyings.

Under the product terms, certain dates specified above and below will be adjusted if the respective date is either not a business day or not a trading day (as applicable). Any adjustments may affect the return, if any, you receive.

The product terms also provide that if certain exceptional events occur (1) adjustments may be made to the product and/or (2) the issuer may terminate the product, as applicable, early. These events are specified in the product terms and principally relate to the product and the issuer. The preference shares in turn contain provisions allowing the preference shares to be adjusted or terminated early in the case of certain exceptional events, in particular relating to the underlyings. Any such adjustments or early termination are likely to affect the amount and timing of return you receive under the product, meaning the return (if any) that you receive on such early termination is likely to be different from the scenarios described above and may be less than the amount you invested.

Intended retail investor The product is intended to be offered to retail investors who fulfil all of the criteria below:

- they have basic knowledge and/or experience of investing in similar products which provide a similar market exposure and have the ability to understand the product and its possible risks and rewards, either independently or through professional advice;
- they seek income and/or capital growth, expect the movement in the underlyings to perform in a way that generates a positive return. They have an investment horizon and understand that the product may terminate early;
- they are able to bear a total loss of their initial investment, consistent with the redemption profile of the product at maturity (market risk);
- they accept the risk that the issuer could fail to pay or perform its obligations under the product irrespective of the redemption profile of the product (credit risk);
- they are willing to accept a level of risk of 4 out of 7 to achieve potential returns, which reflects a medium risk (as shown in the summary risk indicator below which takes into account both market risk and credit risk).

The product is not intended to be offered to retail clients who do not fulfil these criteria.

2. What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk indicator

The risk indicator assumes you keep the product for 5 years. The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less. You may not be able to cash in early. You may have to pay significant extra costs to cash in early.

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 4 out of 7, which is a medium risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium level, and poor market conditions are very unlikely to impact our capacity to pay you.

Inflation erodes the purchasing value of cash over time and this may result in the decline in real terms of any capital reimbursed.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

If we are not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

For detailed information about all risks relating to the product please refer to the risk sections of the offering documentation and any supplements thereto as specified in the section "7. Other relevant information" below.

Main factors likely to affect future returns on the product

Your return on the product at the end of the recommended holding period will principally be affected by (1) the price at which you purchase the product, (2) the performance of the underlyings over the recommended holding period and of the exchange rate between the product currency and the underlying currencies and (3) the ability of the issuer to make payments that become due on the product. The value of the product before the maturity date or early termination of the product will also be affected by general economic and market conditions, the volatility of the underlyings (which is a measure of the extent of movement in the levels of the underlyings), interest rates, exchange rates, the correlation between the various underlyings, the remaining time to maturity and the ability of the issuer to make payments.

What could affect my return positively?

- An increase in the price of the preference shares that is indirectly linked to an increase in the levels of the underlyings

What could affect my return negatively?

- A decrease in the price of the preference shares that is indirectly linked to a decrease in the levels of the underlyings

Investment performance information

- The occurrence of a barrier event
- The issuer's inability to make payments on the product when they fall due

The factors listed above provide general guidance on how changes in the levels of the underlyings may affect your return if you purchase the product at inception and hold it to the end of the recommended holding period. If you purchase or sell the product after inception, your return on the product will also be affected by the purchase or sale price and the levels of the underlyings at the time of sale or, in the case of a purchase, at and following the time of purchase. The precise impact will depend on the timing and effects of these changes, and the above list should not be viewed as guaranteeing a particular outcome. See "1. What is this product?" for a discussion of how the payment you may receive at the end of the recommended holding period will be calculated.

In severely adverse market conditions, if you hold the product to the end of the recommended holding period, you may lose your entire investment.

If you sell the product in severely adverse market conditions prior to the recommended holding period, your return may be lower than what you would have received if you held the product to the end of the recommended holding period and may be as low as zero. See "5. How long should I hold it and can I take money out early" below for additional information.

3. What happens if HSBC Bank plc is unable to pay out?

You are exposed to the risk that the issuer might be unable to meet its obligations in connection with the product for instance in the event of bankruptcy or an official directive for resolution action. This may materially adversely affect the value of the product and could lead to you losing some or all of your investment in the product. The product is not covered by any deposit protection scheme.

4. What are the costs?

The Reduction in Yield (RIY) shows what impact the total costs you pay will have on the investment return you might get. The total costs take into account one-off and ongoing costs.

The amounts shown here are the cumulative costs of the product itself, for three different holding periods. They include potential early exit penalties. The figures assume you invest GBP 10,000. The figures are estimates and may change in the future.

Costs over time

Investment: GBP 10,000
Scenarios	If you cash in after 1 year	If you cash in after 3 years	If you cash in at the end of the recommended holding period
Total costs	GBP 267.00	GBP 217.00	GBP 217.00*
Impact on return (RIY) per year	2.82%	0.77%	0.45%

* The costs are calculated on the basis that the product early termination feature activates in May 2028 and that you do not reinvest the proceeds.

The person selling you or advising you about this product may charge you other costs. If so, this person will provide you with information about these costs, and show you the impact that all costs will have on your investment over time.

Composition of costs

The table below shows:

- The impact each year of the different types of costs on the investment return you might get at the end of the recommended holding period.
- The meaning of the different cost categories.

The table shows the impact on return per year.
One-off costs	Entry costs	0.45%	The impact of the costs already included in the price.
	Exit costs	0.00%	The impact of the costs of exiting your investment when it matures.
Ongoing costs	Portfolio transaction costs per year	0.00%	The impact of the costs of us buying and selling underlying investments for the product.
	Other ongoing costs	0.00%	The impact of the costs that we take each year for managing your investments.

5. How long should I hold it and can I take money out early?

Recommended holding period: 5 years

This product is designed for staying invested until the maturity date (30 May 2031), although the product may terminate early (see "What is this product?" above).

If you wish to exit the product early, the price at which you are able to sell the product may be less than the amount you invested and you may make a loss. In addition, there may be no trading market for the product meaning you are unable to find a buyer. The price at which you are able to sell the product may be impacted by market factors including, but not limited to, the performance, volatility, expected dividend and/or liquidity of the underlyings and the financial condition of HSBC. If HSBC purchases the product, HSBC may deduct costs from the price it is willing to pay you (including, but not limited to costs relating to its hedging arrangements).

Exchange listing	London Stock Exchange	Price quotation	Percentage
Smallest tradable unit	GBP 1.00
